DEPARTMENT OF SANSKRIT

PROGRAMME OUTCOME;

“The Sanskrit language, whatever be its antiquity is of wonderful structure, more perfect than the Greek, more copious than Latin and more exquisitely refined than either”—Sir William Jones.

Sanskrit is one of the oldest languages in the world. It is the mother of many vernacular Indian languages. There will be a 4-year Undergraduate Honours Programme in Sanskrit. This programme will help you acquire the following skills as a basis for the study of ancient Indian religion, literature and history through Sanskrit texts.

Upon completion of the 4-year Undergraduate Honours Programme in Sanskrit, students will emerge equipped with a comprehensive understanding of the diverse branches of Sanskrit literature, poised to attain expertise in this illustrious field. Through diligent study and scholarly engagement, they will acquire proficiency in crafting Sanskrit prose, short stories, drama, and poetry, mastering intricate Sanskrit meters with finesse.

Moreover, students will develop a robust skill set encompassing research methodology, dynamic presentation techniques, and adeptness in scholarly writing. Empowered with the ability to conduct insightful article and book reviews, as well as engage in nuanced power-point presentations, graduates will be primed to embark on diverse avenues of research within the realm of Sanskrit studies. This program not only fosters a deep appreciation for the literary heritage of Sanskrit but also cultivates a generation of scholars poised to contribute meaningfully to the advancement of this venerable tradition.

The outcomes of the Undergraduate Programme in Sanskrit are:

1. Students will be able to explore Sanskrit literature and the concept of Indian cultural heritage.
2. Students will be able to illustrate and compare Vedic and philosophical ideas in the present context.
3. Students will be able to analyze the relevance of Sanskrit in contemporary society.
4. Students will be able to critically appreciate various works of Sanskrit literature.
5. Students will be able to promote and integrate the Indian Knowledge System.
6. Students will be able to cultivate a strong moral sense.
7. Students will be able to enhance their writing and communication skills in Sanskrit.
